

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 18, 2008

Congratulations to the employees of Williams Interior Designs as you are honored with the 2008 Fast Fifty Award. This milestone reflects your dedication to your customers and the communities you serve.

Our Nation's economy is fundamentally strong because our workers are the most industrious, creative, and enterprising people in the world. I appreciate your hard work and contributions to your industry. Your years of service have expanded opportunities for our citizens, encouraged economic development, and helped America stay prosperous and strong.

Laura and I send our best wishes for many years of continued success.
